Winter Overcoats.

Men's, Boys', Children's. But that's only a store-name for a garment. Doesn't show the quality; doesn't show whether it's well-made; doesn't show whether the price is fair or excessive.

Let us put just one word before it—Wanamaker's. We don't keep a single dollar's worth or a single Overcoat of mean, unreliable quality at any price.

We make no hobby of how common our prices are. Our business isn't to catch you with prices, but solely to sell the best Overcoats and make winter warm and comfortable for the wearers.

Not one of all we have but you'll pay as little for as it is worth.

Wanamaker & Brown,

210 and 212 N. Broadway.

While our tailoring-to-order is unexceptionable, and our variety of goods the finest, prices are reasonable.

MELLIER'S

HYGIENIC TOILET SOAP

In the manufacture of our "High Class Perfumes" we accumulate large quantities of Pomade, the medium by which the delicate odors of the flowers are secured. On this account nothing but a mixture of the finest neutral lard and purest tallow can be used for the base of the pomade. MELLIER'S HYGIENIC SOAP is made from this, with the addition of Glycerine, and is agreeably scented. It is an emollient, which will keep the skin soft and smooth and prevent chaps.

Price—20c Per Cake; 50c per Box of 3 Cakes.

private secretary, and the physicians reorganized a company and soon after was

Colonel of a regiment. When Gov. Claiborne retired to Louisville before the Federal

he did so with disastrous results. He then signed and, after spending a few weeks at his home, went to Richmond to tender his services to the Confederate Government and was commissioned a Lieutenant-Colonel.

He was assigned to the staff of Gen. W. J.

Hart, who was at Pocahontas, Ark., but after a short service in Arkansas and Missouri

he crossed the river and had command of the Third Confederate Infantry. He was in all the desperate work around Bowling Green, Ky.,

at Fort Donelson, and then in the retreat to Corinth. He was a brave and successful leader, and a successful charge on a battery, and was made Brigadier-General on the field. He was wounded, but did not leave
